This information is gathered in order to enable it to provide education and the associated functions of the school. In addition, there may be a legal requirement to collect and use information to ensure that the school complies with its statutory obligations.

Schools have a duty to be registered, as Data Controllers, with the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO) detailing the information held and its use. These details are then available on the ICO’s website.

Schools also have a duty to issue Privacy Notices when collecting information. Each notice will summarise the information held, why it is held, and the other parties to whom it may be passed on. The school may ask you to share information with us at various times. We will always ask for consent and we will explain what we are asking for and why we are asking for it.

The school has to collect certain data because it is an educational establishment and under the terms of the GDPR:

'6(1)(e) – Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller'

In addition the school has to process some data which is special category data and so is also bound by this condition of the GDPR:

'9(2)(d) - processing is carried out in the course of its legitimate activities with appropriate safeguards by a foundation, association or any other not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim and on condition that the processing relates solely to the members or to former members of the body or to persons who have regular contact with it in connection with its purposes and that the personal data are not disclosed outside that body without the consent of the data subjects.'

All staff involved with the collection, use and disclosure of personal data will be aware of their duties and responsibilities by being appropriately trained. They will all adhere to this policy and the requirements of GDPR.
